

I am contacting in support of the protection of Net Neutrality. It's important for the American people that companies not be allowed to have the control they're trying to obtain.